

Semi-Automated Table Integration

- For plastics-, textiles- and wool-sorting, the semi-automated table integration is recommended as an accessory.
- A motion sensor is included for automated measurements.
- The table integration can be inserted into a table by creating a cutout or attached to the edge of a table or bench with screws.

trinamiX table integration

How it looks like after being inserted into a table

Dimensions of cutout

Overlay of cutout and holder